- DETAILED ITINERARY -

DAY 01 RISHIKESH TO LOHAJUNG

Distance Covered : 260 Kms

The journey begins from Rishikesh. Lohajung is located at a distance of 260 km from Rishikesh. It takes 8-9 hours of an absolutely delightful drive, the road trip is beautiful right from the start. It begins with a drive through the spectacular hills of Garhwal. The roads are long and winding letting you absorb every bit of the picturesque beauty around. Swift river runs parallel to the roads.

AAfter an exciting drive through the mesmerizing landscape, we will be reaching Lohajung by evening. The stay today will be in guest houses and home stays. After check-in, trekkers can freshen-up and explore the surrounding areas. Dinner is served, and it is now that the trek leader will give you a briefing for the next day. We shall now rest for the big day!

DAY 02 LOHAJUNG TO BEKALTAL

Distance Covered : 6 km

Today marks your first day of trekking. After a wholesome breakfast, we make our way out of Lohajung village and start the climb up the hill to Bekaltal. We have 6 kilometers to cover. The path uphill is an image painted in the warm colors. The sound of nearby streams wafts in and out of your ears as we make our way to the lake, along with the crisp sound of leaves under your feet.

We also witness some heart-warming scenes of rural life in this region. Women with firewood and men taking their cattle out to graze, all against the backdrop of the breathtaking landscape. Bekaltal is a vision of wonder under the clear, blue sky. Trekkers can take their time to relish the vegetation and scenery.

A lovely lunch is provided to the trekkers, followed by some group activities to keep up the morale and spirit. A delicious dinner awaits the adventurers too! We will be camping here for the night, under a blanket of stars.

DAY 03 BEKALTAL TO BRAHMATAL

Distance Covered : 5 km

Excitement is building up as we start our trek towards Brahmatal. After breakfast, we begin our 5 km-long journey. The trail, though steep in some patches, is not difficult to follow. The route to the Brahmatal is dotted with small lakes and the land is far away from any sort of pollution or human disturbance. The trail snakes through oak-laden forests, wide meadows, and more evidence of remote life. You know you are close to the base camp when you see Mount Trishul and Mount Nanda Ghunti before you. Here, a piping hot lunch will be provided. The evening will be peppered with fun experiences like group games or an acclimatization walk to familiarize yourself with the area and the terrain. Afterward, the trekkers can rest while enjoying some evening snacks and soup. The rest of the evening is mostly free. Dinner will be served early as the trek begins tomorrow!

The night ahead is going to be the trek's most memorable one. You will watch the galaxy unravel its wonders to you on the canvas of the sky, creating an unforgettable picture that no camera can do justice to. Take a moment to remember it. The temperature at the Brahmatal base camp may drop very low at night. Make sure you have enough layers on to keep yourself warm.

DAY 04 BRAHMATAL TO BRAHMATAL TOP; DECENT TO DALDUM

Distance Covered : 6 km

Today, we shall cover the Brahmatal Top, and climb 12,250 feet higher than the base. Afterward, we shall descend from the peak to Daldum camp. The trek ahead is moderately difficult, but with a little bit of determination, we will be able to cover the distance in 6-7 hours. Today, we commence at the early hours of 3 am so that we can witness the glorious sunrise at the Brahmatal Top.

After breakfast and a lovely feast of the sunrise, we commence. The trail is mostly simple and facilitates enjoying the route uphill. It only gets slightly difficult as we get closer to the peak.

As we reach the Brahmatal Top, along with the grand view. The view from the top, however, is what captivates you the most. The prominent seven thousanders visible are Trishul, Nandaghunti, Chaukhamba, Neelkanth, Kamet, Hathi, and Ghoda peaks together in the glory of the sun. We make a brief stop here. All this beauty deserves some admiration.

Afterward, we make our way downhill steadily to the Daldum camp. Here, we set up tents for the night, light up some campfires, and spend some quality time having dinner with our fellow trekking buddies and have some quality conversations about the wonderful views we have been blessed with. before retiring to bed.

DAY 05 DALDUM TO LOHAJUNG

The trek from the Daldum to Lohajung is relatively simple and takes only a little over four hours. It is time to say goodbye, but with a lot of memories in your heart and tonnes of trekking experience under your belt, with a promise to come again.

Through endless pathways full of conifers and rhodendron forest, we witness the phenomenal view. It is wondrous how nature's splendor has been spread across for us like a picture to see. This is one of the greatest achievements of the universe.

DAY 06 LOHAJUNG TO RISHIKESH

After a delicious breakfast, we make our final journey to Rishikesh via road, over a 8-9 hours stretch, including breaks for food and refreshments. It is the same road that you crossed on your way uphill, but you feel changed and content after such a wholesome experience. By late evening, we are back in Rishikesh . Trekkers looking to travel on Day 6 itself can be dropped at the bus stand or the railway station, as required. Anyone wanting to spend the night in the cozy city of Rishikesh can make their bookings accordingly. For this time, our journey ends here with lots of happy memories.
